

Asangaon
Christmas-2016

Dear friend,

Tidings of Joy, Peace and happiness on this Christmas to you and your family.

How are you? I am praying for your good health. I am keeping fine. Now I am in 6th standard and studying well. Sisters are also taking trouble to teach us English everyday to read and to write.

I thank you for your great support and help which is enabling me to study further. I am remembering and praying everyday for all your work that you are carrying. May God bless you with success.

I just finished my exams, and enjoyed the Diwali vacations in Naya Jeevan. It was nice to see the lights every where. I am happy to be here in this fresh environment.

Please keep me also in your prayer. May Baby Jesus bless you abundantly with His Peace, Joy and Prosperity.

Wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New Year-2017.

yours loving
Shweta Suryan
